Supervisors Support “Mayor’s Roundtable” in Fontana

SAN BERNARDINO – The Board of Supervisors on Tuesday agreed to partner with the Fontana Chamber of Commerce, and City of Fontana to support the 4th annual Mayor’s Business Roundtable scheduled to take place on Jan. 24.

Chairman Paul Biane, who represents a portion of Fontana as the Second District Supervisor, and Fifth District Supervisor Josie Gonzales requested a $3,000 allocation from the board’s discretionary budget to help sponsor the economic development event

“This is an opportunity for Mayor Mark Nuaimi to speak to the city’s business community about ongoing projects and various issues in Fontana,” Biane said. “It’s also a forum for business owners to ask questions and offer solutions.”

In addition to inviting existing businesses, the City of Fontana also invites businesses that have expressed an interest in locating in the City to the Mayor’s Roundtable.

The Mayor’s Roundtable will include a breakfast and lunch session. The breakfast session will be held from 7:30 to 9 a.m., and the lunch session will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Both are being held at the Sierra Lakes Country Club. Last year, nearly 200 people attended each session.

For more information about the event, contact the Fontana Chamber of Commerce at (909) 822-4433.
